Your five-minute fairy visit

A grown-up guide to making a small moment special

01 / Choose a story

First tooth: page 4. Another tooth: page 5. Missing tooth: page 6. Delayed visit: page 7. Keeping the tooth: page 8. Write your own letter: page 9.

02 / Add the little details

Type into the marked fields, save a new copy and reopen it. Or write by hand. Add a fairy name of your choice; no particular reward or amount is expected.

03 / Prepare the delivery

For a quick visit, print one letter and one certificate. For tiny post, choose page 13 or 29 and the mini envelopes on page 14. A full-size letter does not fit the included envelopes.

04 / Leave a little memory

Place the note somewhere your child can safely find it. Use a receipt, keepsake label or visit log if you like. A letter alone makes a lovely tradition.

Grown-ups: supervise cutting, folding and small pieces. Keep loose teeth, coins and tiny paper items away from younger children and pets. These pages are pretend play and keepsakes, not dental advice.

Print, fold and personalise

Keep this page with your saved files

Choose one edition

A4: 210 x 297 mm. US Letter: 8.5 x 11 inches. Colour and low-ink editions repeat the same 30 pages. Print only the pages you need, single-sided.

Keep the scale

Choose Actual size / 100%, matching the selected paper size. Turn off Fit and borderless enlargement. Measure the test line below before making envelopes.

Edit and save

Use a desktop PDF reader with form support, such as Adobe Acrobat Reader. Only marked fields are editable. Save a copy, close it, reopen it and check before printing. Artwork and fixed text cannot be edited.

Cut and fold

Solid outer lines are cut lines; dashed lines are folds. Use ordinary paper for envelopes and letters, and printer-compatible card for signs. Fold side flaps inward, glue the lower flap to the side flaps, then close the upper flap. Keep glue outside the pocket.

A note about the tiny post

Mini envelope panel: 70 x 45 mm. Fold a 60 x 80 mm tiny letter to 60 x 40 mm. Large envelope panel: 130 x 85 mm; its 120 x 150 mm insert folds to 120 x 75 mm. Test one before printing several.

Your very first tooth

A first delivery from the Moonlight Post Office

Dear _____

What a little moment of wonder: your first baby tooth has come out! I have opened a fresh page in the Moonlight Post Office book, just for you.

A new gap can feel surprising. You can feel excited, unsure, proud, or a little of everything. There is room for every feeling in this adventure.

Tonight I have left a tiny message to mark your very first visit. Your smile has a new story to tell, and I am so glad to be part of it.

A little personal message

With a flutter of wings,

Your fairy _____

Another little adventure

A special delivery for a new tooth story

Dear

A little flutter of wings brought me back to your home tonight. Another baby tooth, another new chapter in your growing-up story!

No two tooth adventures are quite the same. Perhaps this one surprised you at lunch, slipped out during a story, or gave you plenty of time to wonder.

Whatever happened, this is your moment to remember. I have made a note in my moonlit book and left this letter with a pocketful of good wishes.

A tooth gone exploring

The memory is yours, even without the tooth

Dear

I heard that your baby tooth has gone missing. Sometimes the tiniest things have the biggest adventures!

Please do not worry about finding it for me. A note or a drawing tells me all I need to know for our little tradition. You can still celebrate this moment.

I have recorded your tooth story in the Moonlight Post Office book. No tiny parcel is needed tonight: your story is quite enough.

A slightly late delivery

A kind little note for a delayed visit

Dear

I owe you a little apology: my delivery arrived later than planned. A muddle at the Moonlight Post Office sent my letters on a very roundabout journey.

The delay was my mistake. You did nothing wrong, and you were never forgotten.

Thank you for making room for a late flutter of wings. This little message is here now, with warm wishes for you and your wonderful, changing smile.

A treasure to keep

Your tooth, your little keepsake

Dear _____

I received your message that you would like to keep your baby tooth. Of course you may: some tiny treasures belong in a special memory box.

Ask your grown-up to help you choose a safe place for it. A drawing or a little note can join my moonlit book instead.

I am delighted to celebrate with you. Keeping your tooth does not make this adventure any less magical.

FAIRY MOON STAR WINGS

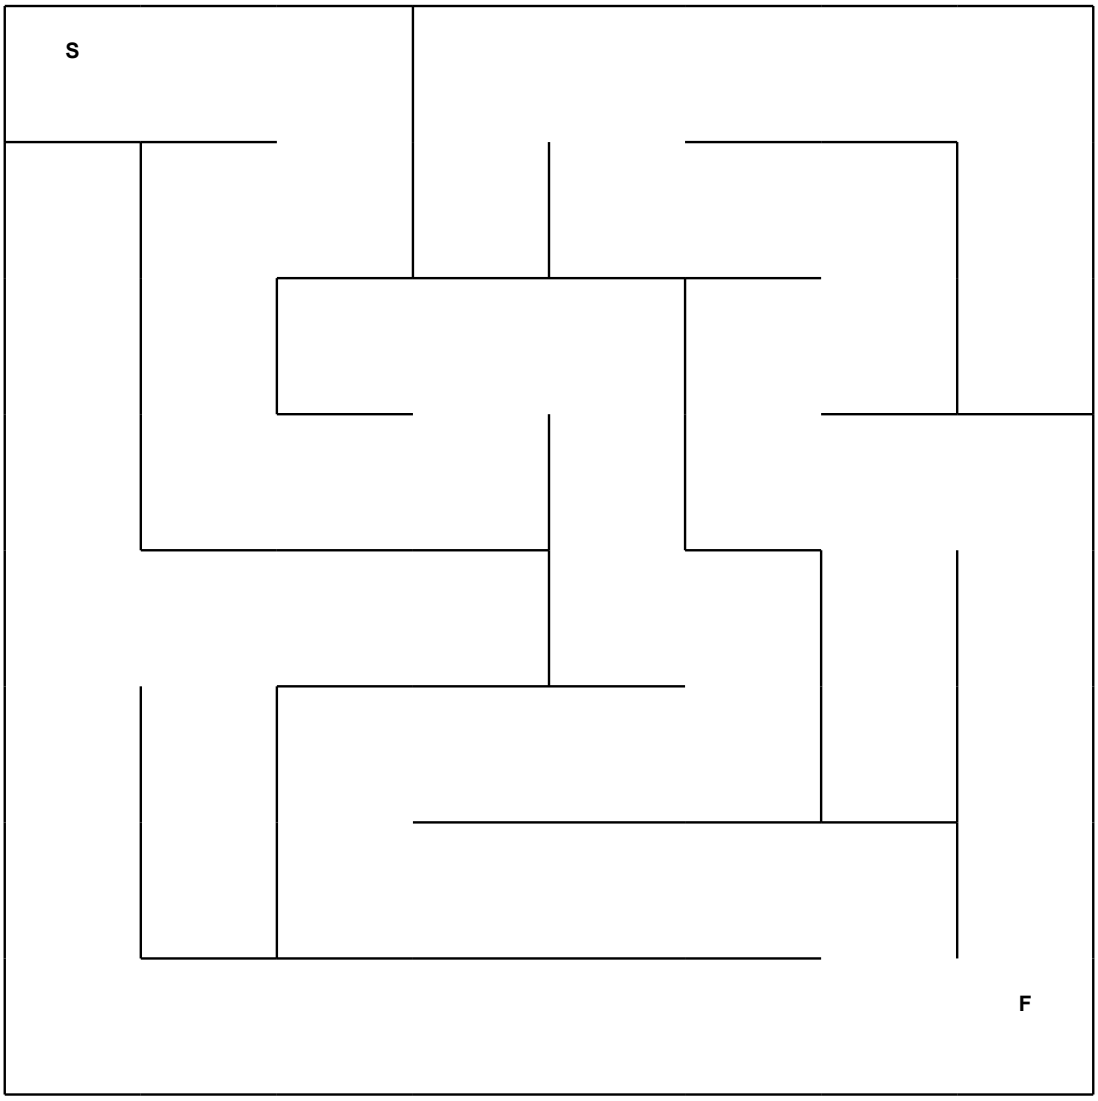

LETTER SMILE MAGIC TOOTH

Answers are on page 28.

The moonlight delivery

Help the fairy travel from S to F without crossing a wall.

The answer is on page 28.

A little matching game

Eight cards: four pairs. Print on card so pictures do not show through.

Cut out the eight cards and mix them face down. Take turns turning over two. If they match, keep the pair and take another turn. If not, turn them back and let the next player try. Most pairs wins; equal scores are a shared win. Play alone by finding all four pairs.

Low-ink cards use matching outline pictures and words. For younger children, play face up and find the pairs together.

A story from the fairy post

Write, dictate or draw your own adventure.
